Cenveo Announces 2011
Patrice M. Daniels Leadership Award Winner

STAMFORD, CT – (August 8, 2011) – Cenveo, Inc. (NYSE: CVO) announced today the recipient of the 2011 Patrice M. Daniels Leadership Award. Diana Herr, Executive Administrative Assistant for Cenveo’s Commercial Print facility in St. Louis, MO was selected for the second annual leadership award. Mrs. Herr has been an employee with Cenveo since 1999 and has led by example as a dependable and enthusiastic coworker. As a breast cancer survivor she has inspired everyone with her consistently positive attitude and determination as well as her willingness to help others. She is known to go above and beyond her work functions on a regular basis and often puts in extra hours to make sure all projects are completed on time and accurately. Mrs. Herr previously worked as a billing and job costing clerk for Cenveo. She is married with two children and one grandson.

Nominees for the Patrice M. Daniels Leadership Award are selected by Cenveo managers annually based on outstanding leadership and exemplary characteristics including trustworthiness, enthusiasm, confidence, and commitment and dedication to family, friends and work. These traits are what defined the late Ms. Patrice Daniels, former member of the Cenveo Board of Directors. All Cenveo employees are eligible to be considered for this award.
